B. ALTMAN & CO. WILL MOVE TO FIFTH AVENUE

Dry-Goods Firm Announces Purchase of Block on Fifth Avenue, Between Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Streets.

WILL AT ONCE PUT UP A FINE NEW BUILDING.

It Will Be Diagonally Across from the Waldorf-Astoria—
Plot One of the Most Expensive in the City.

One of the largest real estate deals in the history of the city has just been completed by Altman & Co., the dry goods firm, who announce that as a result of it a mammoth dry goods house will be erected on the east side of Fifth avenue, covering the entire block between Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth streets and running back 300 feet toward Madison avenue. Upon completion of the building the great Altman establishment will be transferred to it from the present location, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets in Sixth avenue.

The immense plot upon which the store is to be erected is diagonally across the street from the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel and comprises some of the most expensive real estate on Manhattan Island. Altman & Co. began the work of acquiring the various lots making up the complete section many months ago.

Purchases Made Quietly.
The work was conducted so skillfully that not until the announcement of the purchase was made to-day did the sellers know to whom they were conveying their property.

The erection of a great dry goods store in upper Fifth avenue is a sensational business move. Other houses moving uptown have held to Broadway. Altman & Co. are the pioneers in the movement of the big dry-goods houses to the Fifth avenue district. Undoubtedly other firms will follow their example. Tiffany's will move to Fifth avenue and Thirty-eighth street before long, and the time approaches when Fifth avenue below Forty-second street will be devoted entirely to business purposes.

It is reported in real estate circles that the plot upon which the Altman firm will build cost about $3,000,000. The price is considered reasonable considering the vast improvements that are soon to be made in the vicinity. Only by the cleverest business methods was the plot acquired by stealth. Any rumor of the design of a single firm to acquire the whole block front would have sent prices to a prohibitive figure.

New Dry-Goods Centre.

The completion of the Pennsylvania tunnel will make Herald Square the centre of the retail dry-goods district. There have been frequent rumors of designs by large downtown firms upon plots in the vicinity of this coming neighborhood, but Altman & Co. is the first firm that has confirmed these rumors so far as Fifth avenue is concerned.

Work on the new building will be begun in the early spring. In the mean time the buildings on the plot will be demolished as rapidly as this coming season. The cost of the building is estimated at $1,500,000. This, added to the cost of the ground, brings the total investment up to $3,000,000.

B. Altman & Co. announce that the negotiations for the property were conducted through George R. Reed, C. A. Anderson and Mrs. Robert O. Reed. The other buildings on the block are occupied by small business concerns. On the Thirty-fifth street side the erection of the Altman building will demolish the tearing down of the buildings occupied by the Reform Club and the Brook Club, the latter a new organization.

When the news was made public this afternoon that Altman & Co. had acquired the Fifth avenue site a member of the firm of M. Knoedler & Co., of No. 355 Fifth avenue, at the northeast corner of Thirty-fourth street, and Mrs. Rosalie King, of No. 37 Fifth avenue, asked that it be announced that they did not know of the completion of the deal.

NO EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS NEXT SPRING.

But Revision of the Tariff May Be Taken Up in Fall on Special Call by Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—No extraordinary session of Congress will be held next spring for a revision of the tariff. That has been decided definitely. The question of an extraordinary session next fall is in abeyance.

President Roosevelt announced this decision to several of his callers to-day. The President said he had abandoned any idea of calling Congress into an extraordinary session in the spring, as it did not seem practicable to hold a session for tariff revision at that time. He indicated, however, that he might call a session for next fall, although no definite determination of that point yet has been reached.

In view of this decision the President said Representative Cooper, of Texas, that he had decided to make a Southwestern tour early next season.

WOMAN'S BODY FOUND IN THE HARLEM RIVER

Mystery of the Disappearance of Mrs. Sadie Cohen Becomes Even Deeper Through the Gruesome Discovery—May Have Been Robbed and Slain.

Mystery marked the disappearance of Mrs. Sadie Cohen, of No. 44 East One Hundred and Sixteenth street, on Thursday evening last, and seemingly more impenetrable it became this afternoon when her frozen body was found among the ice in Harlem River.

It is not believed that the woman committed suicide, and it is hard to account for her having been drowned by accident. According to what the police have learned, she was on the best of terms with her husband and family; in fact, she had everything in the world to make life worth the living. Her years had been such that the possibility of her having a secret sorrow that might have driven her to end her existence cannot be accepted in explanation of how she came to her death.

The one theory that seems tenable is that of robbery and murder to hide its victim. When Mrs. Cohen left her home on Thursday evening it was with the intention of purchasing Christmas presents. She had $30 in her pocketbook, and on her person was jewelry worth perhaps $100. What has become of the money and the jewelry the police are trying to learn.

Mrs. Cohen's failure to return on Thursday night caused her family the greatest anxiety, but, fearing notoriety, they did not mention her absence to their neighbors or report it to the police until last night. A general alarm was sent out then, and the search that occasioned on the part of detectives ended with the finding of the woman's remains in the cold waters of the Harlem by a boatman, near East One Hundred and Twenty-second street.

AFTER YANKEE FARMERS.

ST. JOHN, N. D., Dec. 10.—The Canadian Government has appointed Thomas Hetherington immigration agent, and authorized him to open an office in Boston. Mr. Hetherington proposes to carry on a campaign in New England agricultural districts to induce farmers to locate in the Canadian Northwest. It is asserted that 50,000 Americans, mostly from the Middle West, have settled on the Canadian side within fifteen months.

18 BELOW ZERO UP-STATE.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Dec. 10.—The mercury touched 18 below zero at Rainbow Lake early to-day. It was 13 below at Saranac Lake, 15 below at Upper Chateaugay Lake, and 18 below in Lake Placid. It was at zero here. The weather is extremely cold throughout the northern section of the State.

MRS. CHADWICK ILL CANNOT GET BAIL

Woman Decides, However, to Fight Against Being Taken to Ohio—Will Remain in Tombs Probably Until Her Hearing Next Saturday.

THE WORTHLESS NOTES WHICH WERE ISSUED BY MRS. CHADWICK.

Note held by Citizens' National Bank of Oberlin, O. $500,000
Note held by Citizens' National Bank of Oberlin, O. 250,000
Note admitted to exist by President Beckwith..... 500,000
Note held by Irl Reynolds..... 5,000,000
Certificate of trusteeship for securities held by Reynolds..... 7,500,000
Total.....$13,750,000

All hope of securing bail for Mrs. Chadwick was abandoned this afternoon. It is now doubtful if she will ever go back to Cleveland willingly. The discovery that the name of Andrew Carnegie has been forged to notes and other evidences of indebtedness in favor of Mrs. Chadwick had any business dealings has been victimized may prompt her to take the advice of her lawyers to remain in New York and fight extradition to Ohio.

She is in the Tombs to stay until her case is decided. This was admitted to-day by her counsel, Philip Carpenter and Edmund W. Powers. They visited Mrs. Chadwick and repeated their advice that she should remain in New York and fight the proceedings that have been brought against her in the Federal Court. Mrs. Chadwick's son, Emil Hoover, said that he had advised his mother to abide by the decision of her counsel.

SHE IS QUITE ILL TO-DAY.

Mrs. Chadwick's condition is causing great alarm to her son and her nurse. She is in bad shape physically when she was sent to the Tombs, and two days of confinement have greatly aged her. Commissioner of Charities Lantry, who saw her to-day, says that she is undoubtedly in a bad way.

"She was trying to take some exercise along the gallery," said Mr. Lantry, "but was scarcely able to stand on her feet. I have sent for Dr. Levin, the physician who looks after the Federal prisoners, and he will be placed in complete charge of Mrs. Chadwick." When Mr. Carpenter and Mr. Powers called to see Mrs. Chadwick they sent word to her that she should come to the consultation room. The messenger returned with the information that Mrs. Chadwick was too weak to walk down the stairs. The attorneys thereupon went to her cell, accompanied by Emil Hoover and the maid Freda.

George Ryal, the attorney for Herbert Newton, of Brookline, Mass., whose attempt to collect $190,800 from Mrs. Chadwick precipitated the seizure of her property, was also present.

SIX-DAY BICYCLISTS ON HOMESTRETCH OF THE LONG GRIND

Seven Teams in Big Garden Race Making Their Final Efforts As 10 o'Clock, the Hour of the Grand Finish, Approaches.

STOL AND ROOT TO FIGHT IT OUT IN A ONE-MILE SPRINT.

Sensational Spurt by Keegan and Logan, by Which They Gain a Lap, the Most Exciting Finish of Last Day of Hard Week's Struggle.

CYCLE RACE SCORE AT 7 O'CLOCK.

	M.	L.		M.	L.
Vanderstuyft and Stol.....	2,313	3	Keegan and Logan.....	2,319	1
Root and Dorlon.....	2,319	3	Bretton and Gougoltz.....	2,319	0
Samuelson and Williams.....	2,319	1	Turville and Mettling.....	2,313	6

The six-day bicycle riders at Madison Square Garden are almost at the end of their long grind. At 10 o'clock to-night the 142 hours of racing will end and then in all probability will come a mile sprint between a foreign and a New York team to decide the winner.

There seems little chance that either Stol or Root and their team mates will be able to gain any advantage before 10 o'clock, which means that they will be the teams to fight it out for first and second money. Samuelson and Williams will probably take third money, while Keegan and Logan should win fourth.

It is generally conceded among the cyclists around the Garden that Root is a better sprinter than Stol. That being true the riders should finish as follows:

First—Root and Dorlon.
Second—Stol and Vanderstuyft.
Third—Samuelson and Williams.
Fourth—Keegan and Logan.
Fifth—Gougoltz and Bretton.
Sixth—Keegan and Fogler.
Seventh—Turville and Mettling.

Keegan and Logan Slow Up.

After the sensational spurt by Keegan and Logan resulting in their gaining a lap on the other riders, they were expected to get right after the leaders; but, apparently, their effort left them with no steam to do more, for they were content to stick with the bunch. While the riders were plugging away Walthour, Monroe, Butler and the other riders who quit the race in a half early in the day, requested the officials to advise the N. C. A. to lift the suspension put upon them and let them pose a fine way by way of punishment. It is likely that this will be done and Walthour will escape with a $500 tax, while the others will get off with smaller fines.

When Keegan first put his hands over the handlebars and started to dig the audience was on its feet, and when half an hour later Logan slowly but surely passed every man in the race hats were being waved.
